

30' Chrome Case Power Tape

The Empire® Level 30' x 1" Chrome Case Power Tape is ideal for homeowners and professionals who need precise, on-demand measurements for a wide range of tasks including carpentry, piping and more. It comes in a chrome case that is durable to better withstand wear and tear and to help ensure a longer lifespan. The Empire Level durable chrome case power tape comes with a blade that is nylon coated for additional strength. The blade also contains three different colors for better visibility in low-light environments. The Empire Level 30' power tape has a triple-riveted hook for optimal reinforcement of the measuring tape. It comes with a heavy-duty steel belt clip for easy, convenient and hassle-free carrying and transportation. The Empire Level durable chrome case power tape is compact and ergonomically designed for comfortable use.
